Strands

Strands are categories for organizing the curriculum. In the English Language Education KLA, the three interrelated Strands of Interpersonal, Knowledge and Experience are employed as content organizers for the purpose of developing knowledge, skills, values and attitudes as a holistic process.

Strands have been referred to as “Dimensions” in earlier English Language curriculum documents such as the CDC Syllabus for English Language (Secondary 1-5) 1999.