13. [D.q.] “What? What

5. [Be] This moment I knew I

9. [Choice] I took up the letter to

20. [Noun] Chris did not have any

22. [Noun] It was a

14. [Gerund] I opened the letter and started

6. [Choice] Chris and Sandra made other people very

7. [Choice] Chris was my best friend and I knew him very

18. [Infinitive] Chris would

28. [Pronoun] A few days later, Chris invited

37. [Tense] One day, when I

19. [Infinitive] Chris would

33. [Subject] How can

3. [Article] What a

5. [Agreement] Inside the letter, there

8. [Choice] How could I tell my best friend that Chris

11. [Conditional] If I

12. [Conditional] If I didn’t didn’t have

4. [Be] The letter was written by Chris but I

6. [Choice] How could

10. [Choice] I wanted to read this letter though it was not

29. [Pronoun] I read the letter and put it on

32. [Subject] Chris, why are you so late to say

36. [Tense] Do you know that since I

2. [Agreement] Inside the letter, there

35. [Tense] Do you

15. [I.q.] I wanted to follow them to the bar and see

23. [P.p.] They went to a quiet place and kissed. I was very

21. [Noun] Chris had the

24. [Passive] People always fall in love. But love

26. [Preposition] Let me think

1. [Adverb] I walked very

8. [Choice] I didn’t get

16. [I.q.] It was not important how

27. [Preposition] There was a letter which was pink

17. [I.q.] When I knew who

34. [Subject]

30. [Reported] I told her

25. [Preposition] I went

38. [Tense] When I

39. [Verb] Chris, I

40. [Verb] Then I

Chris loved Sandra.

A few days later, Chris invited me to lunch sweetly together. I read the letter and put it on my desk. It said, “… I

I felt happy that Ben and Candy could become lovers after this event.

Tense] Do you know that since I

The next day, Chris came to school. I congratulated you.

Then I

Proofreading #5

19th December 2005

1. [Adverb] I walked very slowly and looked seriously around. Many things were different now.

2. [Agreement] Inside the letter, there were many love sentences. Chris fell in love with a girl. All of them were my friends.

3. [Article] What a

amazing scene! I saw

elf wearing

MP3 player, reading

an old red book under a tree.

4. [Be] The letter was written by Chris but I was not sure that you or not.

5. [Be] This moment I knew I was not afraid of telling her anymore.

6. [Choice] Chris and Sandra made other people very jealous of them.

7. [Choice] Chris was my best friend and I knew him very well.

8. [Choice] How could I tell my best friend that Chris rejected

her?

9. [Choice] I took up the letter to read because it was already opened.

10. [Choice] I wanted to read this letter though it was not addressed to me.

11. [Choice] Ten years later, I received an invitation to their wedding party.

12. [Conditional] If I didn’t have known

Chris loved Sandra.

13. [D.q.] “What? What are you talking about?” I spoke again, “Julia loves you too!”

14. [Gerund] I opened the letter and started reading it. When I finished reading it, I was very excited.

15. [I.q.] I wanted to follow them to the bar and see whether that was true.

16. [I.q.] It was not important how got the letter.

17. [I.q.] When I knew who

the person would be extremely sad. I didn’t know what could do.

18. [Infinitive] Chris would give the letter to Gigi. He could tell the truth to her in the letter.

19. [Infinitive] I went to sleep. Then I saw sit very close to each other.

20. [Noun] I had not have any responsible responsibility.

21. [Noun] Chris had the bravery

to write a love letter to the girl to show his love.

22. [Noun] It was a full of

letter

full of love and care.

23. [P.p.] They went to a quiet place and kissed. I was very amazed about that. Our classmates were very excited about it too.

24. [Passive] People always fall in love. But love can’t be explained.

25. [Preposition] I went into the classroom. I discovered a letter on my desk. I looked at the name. It was Chris.

26. [Preposition] Let me think of an idea to help Chris show his love to Sandra.

27. [Preposition] There was a letter which was pink

in colour.

28. [Pronoun] A few days later, Chris invited

her to go to Ocean Park. I saw them go for lunch sweetly together.

29. [Pronoun] I read the letter and put it on his desk.

30. [Reported] I told her not to be so upset. We were still young. We had many chances.

31. [Spelling] After reading the letter, I started to shake.
The letter was very disgusting.

32. [Subject] Chris, why are you so late to say

you love me?

33. [Subject] How can

anybody

I imagine this letter was written by my friend?

34. [Subject] Loving her was a wise decision.

35. [Tense] Do you know that since I was in S.2, I have loved

you because you are kind and handsome?

36. [Tense] I felt happy that Ben and Candy could become lovers after this event.

37. [Tense] One day, when I

was walking home from school, I found a letter on the street.

38. [Tense] When I

picked up my books, I found a letter on the floor. It said, “… I loved

you more than yesterday …” Immediately I left the room. I would tell nobody. The next day, Chris came to school.

39. [Verb] Chris, I

congratulate

you.

40. [Verb] Then I

returned home.