1. [Adverb] I didn’t prepare well but luckily I didn’t get hurt.
2. [Agreement] Hong Kong has a lot of places that are suitable for eco-tourism.
3. [Agreement] To begin with, there is a lot of beautiful spots in Hong Kong.
4. [Article] Finally, Hong Kong will become the richest city in the world.
5. [Article] In order to use our natural resources in an efficient way, we should develop eco-tourism.
6. [Be] We are take care of the environment. We are afraid that pollution will affect our health.
7. [Choice] The government can build plant more trees to improve the air quality.
8. [Choice] To begin with, Hong Kong’s population is high dense. We need a lot of buildings.
9. [Gerund] Besides promoting itself as an eco-tourist destination, Hong Kong can promote itself in other ways such as ‘food paradise’, ‘shopping paradise’ etc.
10. [I. Q.] Nowadays, people discuss about whether Hong Kong should promote itself as an eco-tourist destination.
11. [Infinitive] Hong Kong has a huge potential for Hong Kong being to be an eco-tourist destination.
12. [It] Environment-It is necessary to be conserved the environment.
13. [Noun] Eco-tourism can stimulate the economic economy of Hong Kong.
14. [Noun] Singaporeans always know the important importance of keeping the air quality well.
15. [Passive] The tourists will not be interested in the eco-tourist destination because of the air pollution.
16. [Question tag] There is no natural environment to develop eco-tourism, isn’t there?
17. [Spelling] The tourists can see similar things in their countries.
18. [Verb] A lot of people worry whether Hong Kong succeeds in becoming an eco-tourist destination.
19. [Verb] Besides paper, we should also save electricity because Hong Kong is using coal to generate it.
20. [Word order] Even Hong Kong cannot satisfy even the basic conditions like clean air, green plants.