Proofreading #9

1. [Agreement] We should have a higher standard compared with other school schools. We are able to show different ways to finish an assignment.

2. [Agreement] We suggest that these activities be held in the School Hall.

3. [Agreement] We would demonstrate how to put different parts of a computer together by ourselves.

4. [Agreement] We would demonstrate [an] IT project projects that our Club members have done.

5. [Article] As a the chairperson of Computer Club, I would like to make the following proposal.

6. [Article] I would like to organize three activities. They are an IT course, a game stall and a computer quiz.

7. [Choice] Our talk will help students know about the newest latest computer technology.

8. [Choice] We would give winners attractive prizes.

9. [Choice] We would like to raise the students’ awareness in computer crime.

10. [Comparison] We sell the computer software cheaper than other shops.

11. [Extra word] Nowadays, IT technology has become part of our life. Students should be good at IT technology.

12. [Gerund] The games would result in building up new vocabulary in our students.

13. [L.Q.] Our exhibition would provide the latest information and what is the trend of IT development is.

14. [Infinitive] These little games are popular and can attract many people to come to our school.

15. [Noun] The games would give our students an extra chance to use English for communication.

16. [Passive] An online game competition will be held in the School Hall.

17. [Plural] We would like to organize these activities at the School Open Day to attract students’ interest in our Club.

18. [Preposition] We would like the Form One students to know more about our Club.

19. [Preposition] We would like to share the fun of playing with computer.

20. [Preposition] We would organize three IT activities at the School Open Day. On that day, our Club would show the visitors stunning graphics and images.

22. [Uncountable] We would invite Microsoft, Norton and Adobe to put up stalls to sell us their popular software at an educational discount.

23. [Verb] Many students do not understand how to repair their computers.

24. [Verb] Our exhibition would show visitors how IT products help to raise our living standard.

25. [Verb] We would choose healthy games that are suitable for all ages.