Proofreading #10

1. [Agreement] It is an interesting game. Students can test their general knowledge through the game.

2. [Choice] After receiving the donation, we will take back the production cost and send the surplus to the poor people. [surplus]

3. [Choice] All the money will come from the class association.

4. [Choice] Our two stalls will be located at the bottom back (right hand corner) of the hall.

5. [Choice] Students need to make up at least five vocabulary words within ninety seconds.

6. [Choice] Students toss one-dollar coins onto the rainbow board.

7. [Choice] The aim of Operation Santa Claus is to collect/donate/raise money to help the needy.

8. [Choice] The aim of organizing these stall games is to raise(bring up) the interest of the students in English.

9. [Choice] We organize stalls of food and games to help the needy.

10. [Choice] We will borrow the basketballs from the PE teachers.

11. [Infinitive] We want our schoolmates to know more about different countries.

12. [Order] After they learn the food names, when they go to other countries, they can know how to pronounce those words, when they go to other countries.

13. [Order] Students get 5 balls on which a collocation has been written.

14. [Passive] Helpers are divided into boys and girls. Boys set up the stalls and girls decorate them.

15. [Passive] Students will be given a pile of cards. Those cards will lead them to Santa Claus.

16. [Past participle] We will put up the game stalls in the covered playground.

17. [Spelling] The budget for each stall is two hundred dollars.

18. [Spelling] This game can raise their awareness about Hong Kong issues.

19. [Spelling] We will ask the bookshops to sponsor us stationery.

20. [Subject + verb] There are many wrong pronunciations when the schoolmates speak English.

21. [Subject + verb] Classmates pay three dollars to play once.

22. [Subject] They need to pay to play the games.

23. [Subject] The stalls are for playing games and we use this activity to collect money and to brush up our English.

24. [Uncountable] We will give participants a piece of paper with ten words.

25. [Verb] Reading it aloud allows them to speak more English and practise their spoken English.